EXTRACTS FROM THE CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this Association shall be: The Connecticut Intellectual Property Law Association, Incorporated.

ARTICLE II - OBJECTS

Its objects shall be:

To promote a high standard of ethics within the profession.

To aid, in the best interest of the public welfare, in the preservation of the fundamental principles of industrial property rights, and in the future development of the patent, trademark, copyright and related unfair trade practice laws, and their administration and interpretation in courts and administrative agencies.

Generally, to consider and act upon such other matters as may be of common interest to the public which it serves.

BY-LAWS SECTION VII - ELECTION OF MEMBERS

...Each candidate for membership must be sponsored by two (2) members of the Association, and shall send to the Chairman of the Membership Committee his full name together with the complete street and city address of his principal office, and also such statement as shall be necessary to show his eligibility for membership and such additional statement as he may think proper.

...The proceedings and records of the Membership Committee shall be secret and confidential.
